

Oral Presentation Program

Thursday Oct 3, 11:00-12:35

	Session 1	Session 2	Session 3	Session 4	Session 5	Session 6	Session 7	Workshop
Theme	Recovery	Education	Novel methods in mental health services	Recovery - different perspectives	Issues in psychiatric inpatient care	eHealth	Competence and professionalism
Room	Hall 1A	Meeting Room 1A	Meeting Room 1B	Meeting Room 2A	Meeting Room 2B	Meeting Room 3A	Meeting Room 3B	Hilton Hotel
11:00-11:20	Walking football as a method for recovery-oriented mental health practice. Matias Sakko, Finland	The Role of Mental Health Nurses "Dispositions" in Influencing their Perception of Learnings with the Patient. Geraldine Hostein, France	Shame; exposing the best-kept secret. Social Workers experience of working with clients through the lens of shame. Majella Hickey, Ireland	Risk factors and oral health related quality of life: a problem in patients with first episode psychosis or a problem within the adolescents group? A matched case-control comparison. Sonja Kuipers, Netherlands	What is the future of neuropsychiatric hospital facilities? Toni Lindberg, Finland	Mental Health in the workplace: Using chatbots for self-assessment. Gillian Cameron, UK	The nurse consultant in mental health services: a national, mixed methods study of an advanced practice role. Fiona Nolan, UK	"In My Own Words and Pictures" – Accounts from refugee and asylum seeking young people and families with a focus on their emotional and psychological well-being and resiliency. Laura Falconer, UK
11:25-11:45	Making Recovery Real – spaces for co-production and recovery. Louise Christie, UK	Nursing students mental well-being. Leona Cilar, Slovenia	When it gets difficult; Caring for vulnerable people in community. Amar Voogt, Netherlands	Resuming with vim and vigour; a phenomenological study of the experiences of older people with excessive alcohol consumption about their group treatment. A. Weiland, Netherlands	The difficult balance between involuntary treatment and respect for human rights in psychiatry – is disease insight the key concept? Petra Koprivnik, Slovenia	Towards a chatbot assisted mental health and wellbeing ecosystem. Brian Cahill, Ireland	Zimbabwe Life Project – A UK/Zimbabwe collaborative mental health service development programme: Results from a training event in 2018. Nicola Armstrong, UK
11:50-12:10	The use of Recovery Assessment Scale in a psychiatric rehabilitation ward in Iceland. Margret Ofeigsdottir, Iceland	Instructors' Use of Technology in Counselor Education in the United States. Aleksandar Drobnyakovic, United States	No noise: deaf people with mental health problems. Julia M terry, UK	Personalized function-oriented diagnostics; the Dutch approach. Tobias Kalverdijk, Netherlands	Use of seclusion in Finnish psychiatric inpatient care: A nationwide register study. Emilia Laukkanen, Finland	Chatbots for mental health and suicide prevention: is this even ethical? Maurice Mulvenna, UK	Transition from military to civilian life: Sources and impact of stress on medically releasing members and veterans in the Canadian Armed Forces. Lisa Williams, Canada
12:15-12:35	A patient's view on meaning in life and recovery in forensic care. Charles Lycklama à Nijeholt, Netherlands		Whatever happened to the CLMH research? Lou Mycroft, UK	Validation of the Individual Recovery Outcomes Counter (I.ROC) in people with a schizophrenia spectrum disorder. Hettie Aardema, Netherlands	Music in seclusion rooms – impact of a music listening device on patients and nurses' subjective experience. Emilie Bovet, Switzerland	Towards Conversational Coaching Agents to Support Bibliotherapy. Patrick McAllister, UK	An investigation to better understand the differences and similarities of craving and impulsivity in crack cocaine and crystal methamphetamine drug using populations. Sandra Pillon, Brazil

Thursday Oct 3, 13:45-14:55

	Session 8	Session 9	Session 10	Session 11	Session 12	Session 13	Session 14
Theme	Novel methods in mental health services	Physical health	Evidence based early interventions	Multi-cultural approaches	Service user involvement	Mental health services	Mental health services
Room	Hall 1A	Meeting Room 1A	Meeting Room 1B	Meeting Room 2A	Meeting Room 2B	Meeting Room 3A	Meeting Room 3B
13:45-14:05	An exploration of service user and staff perceptions of the use of drug detection dogs in acute inpatient wards. Nicola Cotton, UK	From problem to implementation: the introduction of a specialist nursing role to improve the physical health of people diagnosed with mental illness. Brenda Happell, Australia	Promoting evidence-based Early Intervention - Brokering Knowledge for Support Children. Marjo Kurki, Finland	Counselors' Perception of Competence in Therapy with Intercultural Couples. Tilija Drobnejakovic, United States	Working together – trained expert by expertise and healthcare professional. Jalmiina Nummelin, Finland	Community Mental Health Advocacy / Activism in Manitoba. Karen J Clements, Canada	Problems and strengths in psychiatric nursing in Poland: current legal regulations and results of survey. Barbara Remberk, Poland
14:10-14:30	The Impact for the Family of Young Onset Dementia. Nicola Armstrong, UK	A study investigating how people with bipolar disorder experience their physical health and increased health risks. Jan Willem de Lange, Netherlands	Systems Change and Service Design in Children and Young People's Mental health and Wellbeing. Laura Falconer, UK	Developing a post graduate programme in mental health nursing in Mongolia (MoMeNT). Fiona Nolan, UK	Experts by experience as peer support workers in psychiatric wards. Mikko Ketola, Finland	Future of Mental Health. Markus Raivio, Finland	Realizing culture change from task-oriented nursing practice to patient-centered nursing. Jennifer Hartman, Finland
14:35-14:55	Mental health online: user testing for building better web content. Maimu Berezkina, Norway	The Health Hut - Integrating Elements of Somatic Health Care of Patients with Schizophrenia. Sari Laaksonen, Finland	How universal, school based prevention programmes can promote resilience and positive mental health. Julie Healy, UK	Substance use disorder in young people in Assam, India: using participatory visual methods to understand their experience of risk, resilience and recovery. Siobhan Hugh-Jones, UK	Expert by experience as a member of multiprofessional team – new opportunities to recognize client's agency and social reality in services. Outi Hietala, Finland	Reflections of a public health researcher on community organising, and capturing voices in mental health research. Liam Spencer, UK	Challenges of management and implementation of nurse-patient collaboration. Irene Pitkänen, Finland

Thursday Oct 3, 15:30-16:40

	Session 15	Session 16	Session 17	Session 18	Session 19	Session 20	Session 21
Theme	Families	Best practices	Service user involvement	Mental health services	Adolescents	Mental health services	International Recovery network
Room	Meeting Room 1A	Meeting Room 1B	Meeting Room 2A	Meeting Room 2B	Meeting Room 3A	Meeting Room 3B	Hall 1A
15:30-15:50	The influence of gratitude on Australian mental health caregiving burden: A cross-sectional study. Paul Morrison, Australia	Mental Health Service Provision for Adults who are Homeless: Experiences of Front-Line Service Providers. Gerry Devine, Ireland	The Apex of Involvement? Emergent Themes in Research into Co-Production in Adult Recovery Colleges. Karen Bester, UK	Planned co-production project with service users, family members and staff, to develop and implement standardised discharge interventions for a mental health service. Zita Flatley, Ireland	The addictions of the modern era: selfies and Facebook- the opinion of the youth regarding the issue. Anamaria Ciubara, Romania	Adolescents from the General Public's Perceptions of Mental Health Services: An Interpretive Descriptive. John Goodwin, Ireland	Helsinki Recovery invites you to the international Recovery network. Virpi Jaakkola, Finland Are you an expert by experience or a professional who is interested in a recovery-oriented system of care?
15:55-16:15	Non-pharmacological treatments in elderly patients with psychosis: literature review. Maija Etholén, Finland	Hospital Housing First Initiative: Preventing Discharge into Homelessness. Cheryl Forchuk, Canada	Enik Recovery college a successful Dutch peer run innovation! Martijn Kole, Netherlands	A qualitative analysis of the experiences of participants attending community based Mental Health Recovery Education. Michael O'Neill, Ireland	Differences in coping in young people when exposed to their own symptoms versus a friend's symptoms of poor mental health. Sofia Pimenta, UK	Adverse Childhood Experiences in Adolescents: Identifying its Impact, and the Clinician's role in Addressing its Behavioral Manifestation in High School Settings. Cierra Osei-Buapim, United States	Then this workshop is just for you! We invite you to a workshop with the aim of establishing an international recovery network, which will allow its members to share recovery experiences, research, good practices and results from different countries. At our workshop, we will also share our own journey towards a recovery-oriented system of care and a better client experience.
16:20-16:40	Supporting Australian Mental Health Service Users: Predictors of Caregiving Burden. Norman Stomski, Australia	Community care for people with 'emotional disturbed behavior'. Ina Boerema, Netherlands	How I Survived the Impossible, Became Happy & Now Help Others In Doing The Same. Craig Lewis, Mexico	Mental Health Service User Involvement in Nursing Handover. Michael Olasoji, Australia	Children and adolescents with mild/moderate intellectual disability and antipsychotic-induced movement disorders. Rianne Smits, Netherlands	Family Wellbeing Project. Frank Reilly, UK

Friday Oct 4, 11:10-12:20

	Session 22	Session 23	Session 24	Session 25	Session 26	Session 27	Session 28
Theme	Education	Recovery	Mental health services	Self harm	Competence and professionalism	Physical health	Substance abuse and addictions
Room	Hall 1A	Meeting Room 1A	Meeting Room 1B	Meeting Room 2A	Meeting Room 2B	Meeting Room 3A	Meeting Room 3B
11:10-11:30	Youth perception towards stigmatization of mental health. Liliana Luca, Romania	On the Path to Recovery – Model for Peer Groups for the Bereaved by Suicide. Reija Tuomisalo, Finland	How has the establishment of brief therapy in a short-term unit affected the work in the outpatient services of a community mental health center? Hilde Våbenø Markussen, Norway	Social support prevents adolescents' self-cutting. Marja-Liisa Rissanen, Finland	Power and accountability: how nurses and psychologists interpret their Responsibilities as Clinicians under mental health law. Jennifer Oates, UK	How are third year mental health nursing students prepared for proficiency to undertake a comprehensive physical health assessment for patients with mental health conditions and is it applicable in clinical nursing practice? The student narrative. Nicola Lamont, UK	Gambling Disorder and implications for mental health and addictions workers. Mina Hazar, Canada
11:35-11:55	Exploring the Limits of Mental Health Simulation to Reduce Stigma Among Health Professionals. Abe Oudshoorn, Canada	The space of recovery: the case for a reverse Ulysses syndrome. Rosanna Tarsiero, UK	Mindfulness Interventions for Depression and Chronic Pain. Tamara C Holmes, United States	Suicide prevention in adult men: A design thinking approach. Jalila Jbilou, Canada	Addressing the High Turnover Rate among Frontline Workers. Deirdre Williams, United States	Use of the Utrecht Somatic Screening Tool from the patient's perspective. Willeke van der Eijk, Netherlands	Keys factors in forming Social Bonds in a Community Addiction Service. Gerard Moore, Ireland
12:00-12:20	Moving beyond stigmatising and medicalised views of mental illness: student nurse experiences of exploring mental distress in the classroom with experts by experience. Aine Horgan, Ireland	Making Recovery Real – spaces for co-production and recovery. Louisa Christie, UK	Efficacy Moderators of Cognitive Behavioural Therapy and Interpersonal Psychotherapy for Depression: A Meta-analysis. Aoife Whiston, Ireland	Community organising and 'zero suicide ambition': grass-roots solution to a public health problem. Simon Mason, UK	Developing and testing Finnish version of the Therapeutic Engagement Questionnaire (TEQ) in psychiatric in-patient care. Jani Turunen, Finland		Integrated care in Substance Use Disorders, a nurse driven program. Laura Reimert, Netherlands

Friday Oct 4, 13:30-15:05

	Session 29	Session 30	Session 31	Session 32	Session 33	Session 34	Workshop
Theme	Issues in different clinical settings	Service user involvement	Best practices	Multi-cultural approaches	Special session: "Spaces of Mental Health"	Adolescents	ECMH 2019 Reflection
Room	Hall 1A	Meeting Room 1A	Meeting Room 1B	Meeting Room 2A	Meeting Room 2B	Meeting Room 3A	Meeting Room 3B
13:30-13:50	Reflective Understanding of Personality Disorder and Offending Risk. Stuart Thomson, UK	Lessons from lived experience - Raising Awareness, Building Confidence and Developing the Capacity to Work Well with People who Attract a Diagnosis of Personal Disorder. Sonya Greaney, Ireland	Addressing Mental Health Problems of Ready Made Garment Workers. Fartheeba Rahat Khan, Bangladesh	Developing a training programme for mental health professionals to enhance medication adherence in Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic Service Users. Laurie Dahl, UK	Deconstructing and Construction Spaces for Encounters between Recoverers and "the Others". Markus Vähälä, Finland	Early intervention for adolescent mental health: will symptomatic young people engage with digitally delivered, evidence-based self-help in schools? Siobhan Hugh-Jones, UK	Dialogical session based on participants' experiences during 8th European Conference on Mental Health. Outi Hietala, Finland and Liam Mac Gabhann, Ireland
13:55-14:15	Experiences of ambulance nurses in emergency care for patients with acute manic and/or psychotic symptoms. Thea Daggenvoorde, Netherlands	"The person isn't their disorder, they are human": Nursing students' experiences of service user taught mental health education. Brenda Happell, Australia	The Art of Leading Without Leading: Work in Progress. Sheila Newcombe, UK	PALOMA training is a great tool for improving professionals' skills on encountering people with refugee background. Katri-Leena Mustonen, Finland	MindFrame - an mHealth space to foster power? Malene Terp, Denmark	Mental health and wellbeing provision in NI Post-Primary Schools: what are schools doing, and what do they want? Nicole Bond, UK
14:20-14:40	Nurses' attitudes towards patients with alcohol abuse in emergency departments. Marita Koivunen, Finland	Teaching from the other side: Expert by experience lecturers experiences of teaching mental health nursing students. Fionnuala Manning, Ireland	Patient perspective on care pathways and informed shared decision making in the transition between psychiatric hospitalization and the community. Eva Walderhaug Sather, Norway	Establishing the centres of excellent on refugee mental health in Finland. Johanna Mäki-Opas, Finland	A collective investment in Lived Experience Practice: examining a co-produced steering group within a mental health peer worker project. Victoria Stirrup, UK
14.45-15.05	Nurses' prejudice against alcohol-intoxicated patient in emergency department. Kristi Oja, Estonia	Niilo mobile app – a personal everyday tool for recovery. Pasi Tuominiemi, Finland	Pharmacist on Psychiatric Wards. Hannele Karvinen, Finland	Positive mental health among people living alone in Lapland region in Finland. Pia Solin, Finland	Interactive Panel Discussion about "Spaces of Mental Health". Virve Repo, Finland		